COCONUT CREEK MULTICULTURAL CIRCLE

September 6, 2022

A note to the Committee

The multicultural Circle has had many Artsfests before the City took over the event. Times were different. We had more members and more energy. Covid saw our membership dwindle. We lost members to covid and we lost members moving to other areas. We persevered. Last year, after I retired from serving the people of Coconut Creek the Multicultural Circle Received a $500. Grant with the promise that it will be an annual grant. Unfortunately, the Commission decided to take that away from us so that we can no longer be a 0 budget entity. We have expenses and some of our members use their personal funds to purchase such things as printing paper, ink , stamps, and annual dues to government. We will have to reduce our grants to the young people of Coconut Creek depending on how much money we can raise from our two functions. Less our expenses .

It took a long time to figure out how to complete these forms and we hope that when all the figures are in that we can count on you to assist us with some funding.

Thanking you in advance,
