Severability; Waiver of Provisions: Any provision in this Temporary Use Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction will, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provisions in any other jurisdiction. The non-enforcement of any provision by either party will not constitute a waiver of that provision nor will it affect the enforceability of that provision or of the remainder of this Temporary Use Agreement. copies of requisite documentation evidencing that the signatory for Licensee has the authority to enter into this Temporary Use Agreement.

constituting force majeure and proof that the non-performance or delay of performance is a direct and reasonable result of such event(s). The City reserves its right to challenge the invocation by the Licensee within five (5) calendar days of receipt of said notice, in such case uninterrupted performance is required. However, in the event the invocation is accepted by the City, the Licensee must take all reasonable measures to mitigate any and all resulting damages, costs, delays, or disruptions to the Licensee's performance requirements under this Temporary Use Agreement. All obligations must resume when the circumstances of such event(s) have subsided, or other arrangements are made pursuant to a written amendment to this Temporary Use Agreement.
