

Section 906. Amendments to Charter.

The Charter may be amended by any one of the following:

- a. As provided by the Florida Statutes.
- b. By a Charter Review Board as provided for in Section 907 of this Article.

(Ref. of 3-12-96)

Section 907. Charter Review; Charter Review Board.

In January, 1980, and every five (5) years thereafter, the Commission shall in January appoint a Charter Review Board consisting of five (5) electors of the City, one (1) from each district, holding no other office, appointment or employment in the government of the City of Coconut Creek except on advisory bodies of the City. In addition, the Commission may appoint a Charter Review Board at any other time as it may deem necessary or desirable. Such Board shall review the Municipal Charter, and within ninety (90) days after such appointment, submit to the Commission such alteration, revisions, and amendments, if any, to this Charter, as in its judgment are desirable. The Commission shall submit to the electors not later than the next succeeding general election or municipal election any such proposed alterations, revisions, or amendments. The members appointed to said Board shall serve without compensation and their terms shall expire ninety (90) days after their appointment.

Section 908. Authority of Commission to Divide City into Voting Districts; (Re-Districting Board).

The Commission, by ordinance and in accordance with the Laws of the State of Florida shall divide the City into voting districts. The Commission, by the same procedure and laws, may re-district the City. The City Commission shall establish and appoint a Re-Districting Board, consisting of five (5) electors of the City holding no other office, except on advisory bodies of the City, one (1) from each district, every five (5) years commencing on or by August 1, 2008 and each succeeding five (5) years thereafter. The City Commission shall, however, have the right to appoint a Re-Districting Board at any time upon a determination that population variances between districts require action. The terms of the members thereof shall expire ninety (90) days following appointment. The Re-Districting Board shall within ninety (90) days of appointment submit a report to the City Commission outlining the need for a re-districting, if any, and the recommendations with regard thereto. The City Commission shall, upon a determination by it of the need to re-district, amend by ordinance the boundaries of the existing voting districts.
