PRESENTATIONS

1. 18-023 A PRESENTATION TO HONOR LIEUTENANT ROBERT J. WEHMEYER.

Police Chief Albert "Butch" Arenal presented Lieutenant Robert J. Wehmeyer with a plaque and retiree credentials, and Lieutenant Wehmeyer addressed the Commission, his colleagues, and the audience. City Manager Blasi presented Lieutenant Wehmeyer with a Waterford crystal eagle to thank him for his dedicated service to the City.

INPUT FROM RESIDENTS OF COCONUT CREEK

Julie Jones, 7871 NW 1 Street, Margate, spoke about the "Do the Right Thing" Program and commended Police Chief Arenal for his work to implement the program in Coconut Creek.

Mark Pannella, 6603 NW 42 Avenue, Coconut Creek, stated that he previously attended a City Commission meeting to speak about a business being operated at a residential property in his neighborhood. He noted that the Code Enforcement case indicated the property was in compliance, but he believed the business was still being operated at the residential property. Assistant City Manager/Sustainable Development Director Sheila Rose commented that the property owner had indicated he discontinued the business, changed his corporate address with the Florida Division of Corporations, and removed the business website. She stated that Code Enforcement would continue to monitor the property. Mr. Pannella asked if the City could obtain a search warrant to inspect the property, and City Attorney Pyburn explained that it was not likely a judge would issue a search warrant for a municipal code violation. Discussion ensued.

CITY MANAGER REPORT

City Manager Blasi reported that the Governor had extended the state of emergency for Hurricane Irma, which allows Monarch Hill Landfill to accept unlimited municipal waste until March 28, 2018.

CITY ATTORNEY REPORT

City Attorney Pyburn had no report.

COMMISSION COMMUNICATIONS

Commissioner Belvedere thanked all who attended the “Do The Right Thing” award ceremony. She also thanked the Police Department, first responders, and City Commissioners who attended the Wynmoor event earlier that day honoring first responders.

Commissioner Welch attended the Safe Street Summit and stated that she would share the information from the Summit with City staff. She commended staff for their efforts on the Butterfly Run and spoke about the improved configuration at the event.

Commissioner Sarbone asked City Manager Blasi to communicate to residents that the City had contacted Waste Management regarding accepting municipal waste through the extended state of emergency. He commented that the Butterfly Run was a great event and commended Special Events Planner Leo Moleiro and Parks and Recreation Superintendent Janet Hull for their work at the run.

Vice Mayor Rydell spoke about the “Do The Right Thing” award ceremony and commended Police Chief Arenal, Police Sergeant Brandi DelVecchio, and all who worked to organize the ceremony. He noted that a bike-sharing company had contacted him about adding locations in Coconut Creek, and he advised them to contact the City Manager. He spoke about the opioid epidemic and noted that approximately 16 municipalities in Broward County had contracted with law firms regarding settlements for the opioid-related deaths in their cities. City Attorney Pyburn noted that the County had selected a conglomerate of local and national firms that would represent them on the matter and that the agreement may provide a piggyback provision that the City could utilize for representation.

Mayor Tooley commended the Parks and Recreation, Police, Public Works, and Fire departments for their work on the Butterfly Run. She spoke about the improvements for this year’s race, and recommended a bullhorn be used to begin next year’s race so that all the participants can hear. Mayor Tooley visited Coral Springs Charter School where a former Monarch High School softball pitcher signed a letter of intent to attend Villanova University. She was looking forward to the opening of Windmill Park after the renovations were complete.
