INPUT FROM RESIDENTS OF COCONUT CREEK

Lisa Aronson, 5163 NW 74 Court, Coconut Creek, thanked the City Commission, City staff, and first responders for their efforts to keep residents informed and safe during Hurricane Irma. She noted that Family Central did not request funding support from the City this fiscal year; but they would next fiscal year and hoped to partner with the City for future events. She spoke about Family Central's upcoming Rock & Roll Event 2017 being held on September 23, 2017.

CITY MANAGER REPORT

City Manager Blasi thanked City staff for their hard work in response to Hurricane Irma and thanked the Commission for their support. She reported that officials from Florida's Turnpike canceled the workshop regarding expansion of the turnpike that was scheduled for September 14, 2017; the workshop had been rescheduled for September 28, 2017, at 11 a.m.

CITY ATTORNEY REPORT

City Attorney Pyburn commended City Manager Blasi and City staff for their hard work and communication efforts during Hurricane Irma. She commented that she spoke with many members of the public that were pleased with the City's emergency operations during and after the storm, and that she was proud to work for the City.

COMMISSION COMMUNICATIONS

Commissioner Belvedere commented that she was proud to be a resident of the City and received positive feedback from many residents regarding the City's response to the hurricane. She thanked City staff for all their hard work. She spoke about the impacts of the storm at SOS Children's Village and Solaris Healthcare nursing home facility, and discussion ensued regarding the City's efforts to assist the agencies. Commissioner Belvedere announced that ArtsFest would be held at the Community Center on September 16, 2017.

Commissioner Welch commented on the preparations and response during Hurricane Irma and thanked all city staff for their hard work. She spoke about the challenges at Solaris Healthcare during Hurricane Irma and noted that the owners were planning a meeting to discuss improvements for future emergency operations.

Commissioner Sarbone thanked city staff for their response to Solaris Healthcare during the storm. He suggested that the city update its emergency operations plan to require site visits to these facilities in emergency circumstances and adopt a resolution urging the State to require back-up generators for cooling systems in the facilities. He noted that the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) was providing assistance to Broward County residents impacted by Hurricane Irma and urged residents to apply. He spoke about the recent breach of sensitive information at Equifax and urged residents to visit their website to verify if they were impacted by the breach.

Vice Mayor Rydell spoke about garbage collection services before Hurricane Irma and commended the Public Works Department for ensuring the garbage was collected from neighborhoods in the north end of the city. He commended Community Relations Director Yvonne Lopez for her communication efforts during the storm. He spoke about the quick response of City staff to begin clean-up efforts after the storm and the events at Solaris Healthcare during and after Hurricane Irma. He discussed resources available for residents impacted by the storm and asked that staff share the information with the residents. He thanked city staff for their service in response to the Hurricane.

Mayor Tooley commented on the events at Solaris Healthcare and suggested providing a checklist to these facilities to ensure emergency preparedness. She spoke about coordinating with the county to improve operations at the emergency shelters and commended the Police Officers working at the shelters. She recognized numerous city staff for their tireless efforts working through the storm. She spoke about restoration efforts by Florida Power & Light (FPL).
