CITY MANAGER REPORT

City Manager Brooks wished Commissioner Brodie a happy birthday and shared an update on the Year in Review publication to be delivered to residents by the end of October. She noted the draft publication would be circulated to the Commission.

CITY ATTORNEY REPORT

City Attorney Pyburn shared that outside counsel fees for Fiscal Year 2022 were $15,417, correcting a number she had misstated at the Commission Workshop earlier in the week. Continuing, she shared that she had presented at the Florida League of Cities Legislative Policy Committee meeting the previous Friday regarding a request for support for a statewide study on community residences. City Attorney Pyburn noted, as a result of attending the meeting, she had learned the Florida League of Cities' top two (2) priorities for the legislative session will be short-term vacation rentals and Form 6 financial disclosures. She added that, at the request of the County Attorney's Office, she had submitted comments to the County related to a draft ordinance regarding the siting of County facilities funded by Transportation Surtax dollars located within cities and noted she would provide the Commission a copy of the comments. She wished Commissioner Brodie a happy birthday.

COMMISSION COMMUNICATIONS

Commissioner Brodie wished Commissioner Tooley a quick recovery and commended City Attorney Pyburn on her thoroughness.

Commissioner Railey stated that she wanted to reiterate the importance of residents protecting their personal information. She asserted scams and fraud were endless. Continuing, she congratulated Deputy City Manager Sheila Rose and the City team for a great presentation at the Ambassador Program and asked that residents do their own homework on the landfill situation.

Vice Mayor Welch agreed the Ambassador Program was done well and had a great turnout. She commented on the heat map, which depicts recycling participation by neighborhood, and asked if it was possible to get an electronic version. She stated the Faith in Blue event held at North Creek Presbyterian Church was a homerun and shared her experience giving the first of her Commission Challenge Coins. She discussed residents she had given coins to. She thanked those involved in putting together the community cookout for their collaboration and impact.

Mayor Rydell commented on the dedication of parent volunteers in City sports. He commended Parks and Recreation Senior Recreation Programmer Dan Laurie for his coordination of the youth sport leagues. Continuing, Mayor Rydell shared his experience at the Foundation for Independent Living Annual Gala. He stated the City was given a Community of Excellence Award and recognized Detective Clint Corey for his engagement with the organization. He shared an idea to consider dedicated special needs housing in the MainStreet area in some capacity to secure long-term housing solutions.
