- (4) Such person violates any express prohibition of the City's Charter;
- (5) Abolition or termination of office pursuant to the provisions of the City's Charter, or specifically section 201(a) of the City's Charter.

Sec. 2-193. – Automatic Board vacancy.

Vacancies of regular and/or alternate members of any board, commission or committee due to any reason whatsoever, shall be filled by the nomination of a person by the city commissioner who sits in the seat of the commissioner who made the original nomination of the vacating member. Such nominations shall be approved by the majority of the city commission in the same manner as for initial appointments. The length of term of the member filling a vacancy shall be the remainder of the original member's term. The appointing commissioner may appoint a new appointee or may re-nominate the prior appointee unless the vacancy occurred as a result of removal by the City Commission pursuant to Section 2-192 of the City's Code.

- ~~(a) Except as otherwise provided in the Coconut Creek Charter, or Code of Ordinances, an appointee to a board, commission, or committee who has three (3) absences from regular meetings in a twelve-month period shall be automatically removed as a member of the respective board, commission, or committee. Automatic removal of a member shall cause a vacancy to exist in the membership of the particular board, commission, or committee. However, the automatic removal of an appointee shall not be deemed effective until the city confirms that the appointee has received written notice from the city manager or designee of the reason for the action taken to remove the appointee.~~
- ~~(b) The city will administer semi-annual reviews of attendance records for all boards, commissions, and committees to determine compliance with the attendance requirements for appointees.~~

- ~~(c) In the event that an appointee is automatically removed as a member of a board, commission, or committee as provided for in subsection (a), the nominating commissioner may renominate the appointee.~~
- ~~(d) After thirty (30) days following notification of the occurrence of a vacancy on any board, commission, or committee due to any reason whatsoever, the city manager or designee shall notify the city commission, who shall then take the necessary action to fill said vacancy.~~

Sec. 2-194. - Newly elected commissioner.

- (a) Should a commissioner fail to serve his/her term of office, and a successor is elected by the electorate to fill that unexpired term, all board members nominated by the commissioner that failed to serve his/her term of office shall continue in office until the expiration of the board member's term of office.
- (b) This section applies to all city boards, including but not limited to the: civil service board, parks and recreation advisory board, environmental advisory board, education advisory board, public safety advisory board, community outreach advisory board, and planning and zoning board. ~~This section does not apply to boards whose terms of office are fixed by Florida Statutes.~~ Any regulation or provision on board members' term of office that conflict with the provisions of this section are specifically superseded by this section.
