

City Program	School Readiness	Chronic Absenteeism	Family Engagement	Summer Slide
Plan a book drive by reaching out to the parents and grandparents of summer campers. Books can be donated throughout summer camp.				x
Start a "Camp Book Club" where the campers read the same book by a certain date and then discuss the book. (new this year)				x
Lil' Tots Live Stories and Adventures: Program for kids ages 2 to 4 & their parent/guardian. Listen to stories, participate in activities, crafts & games that are pertaining to the story.			x
Science Programs: Science classes where children ages 3 to 11 have fun learning different aspects of science through information and hands-on experiments.	x
Recreation centers have computers available for public use. Children can practice using "I-ready" or other reading programs offered in the schools. Call centers for open times.	x
Amazing Stories: Elementary aged kid will read, discuss and create a short story based on a theme. This program will be held throughout the year. (new this year)	x

City Liaison:

City of Coconut Creek

Lenore Thomas, Superintendent

954-545-6670

lthomas@coconutcreek.net