I have an established track record of strong leadership skills, community service and positive attitude that enables delivery of exceptional results. With 33 years at American Express, over 15 years Board of Director experience with nonprofits, BA in Finance and MS in Quality Management, this makes me well positioned to serve on the Coconut Creek City Board. Noteworthy accomplishments and experience include:

- Manager and Director level positions at American Express in Customer Service, Regulatory Compliance, Quality and Technology.
- Experience leading teams of up to 200 resources with a budget of $18M.
- Ability to create and execute a strategic vision with several new software solutions including authentication, fraud case management and chat solutions.
- Created a community outreach program at American Express to encourage middle school girls to pursue education and careers in software development. The program consisted of lessons taught by Amex employees and culminated with the students coming to Amex campus to present their software projects to the Amex employees. The program has been in existence for 6 years.
- Everywoman in Technologies International Leader of the Year finalist (award ceremony held in London).
- Served on Board of Directors for Sawgrass Nature Center, SOS Children's Village and Arc Broward. Positions held include: Chair, Vice-Chair, Strategic Planning Committee Chair, Audit and Finance Committee Chair, Executive Committee Member at Large.

I grew-up in Coconut Creek and have lived in Winston Park for the past 6 years. My son, sister and parents all reside in Coconut Creek. During my free time, I enjoy spending time with my husband, kids, family and friend enjoying outdoor activities, travel and finding good restaurants.
