

Battalion Chief Nemesek,

On behalf of Coconut Creek Fire Rescue and the City of Coconut Creek, I am honored to formally commend you for your service as members of Florida Urban Search and Rescue Task Force 2 during its deployment to Venezuela in support of rescue and humanitarian operations.

Your willingness to deploy into a challenging and hazardous environment reflects exceptional courage, professionalism, and dedication to the fire service. Your specialized training, technical expertise, and commitment to helping individuals and communities in their greatest time of need exemplify the highest standards expected of Coconut Creek Fire Rescue personnel.

Your participation in this international mission requires significant personal sacrifice and a commitment to public service. Throughout the deployment, you represented Coconut Creek Fire Rescue and the City of Coconut Creek with distinction, bringing great credit to you, your family, the department, and our community.

Your service serves as an example to every member of our organization and demonstrates that the commitment of Coconut Creek Fire Rescue extends far beyond the boundaries of our city. I sincerely appreciate your courage, selflessness, and dedication to protecting lives and assisting those affected by disaster.

Please accept my deepest gratitude and congratulations for your outstanding service and exemplary representation of Coconut Creek Fire Rescue.

Respectfully,

Michael Rodriguez
Fire Chief
Coconut Creek Fire Rescue

Captain Francisco Herrera,

On behalf of Coconut Creek Fire Rescue and the City of Coconut Creek, I am honored to formally commend you for your service as members of Florida Urban Search and Rescue Task Force 2 during its deployment to Venezuela in support of rescue and humanitarian operations.

Your willingness to deploy into a challenging and hazardous environment reflects exceptional courage, professionalism, and dedication to the fire service. Your specialized training, technical expertise, and commitment to helping individuals and communities in their greatest time of need exemplify the highest standards expected of Coconut Creek Fire Rescue personnel.

Your participation in this international mission requires significant personal sacrifice and a commitment to public service. Throughout the deployment, you represented Coconut Creek Fire Rescue and the City of Coconut Creek with distinction, bringing great credit to you, your family, the department, and our community.

Your service serves as an example to every member of our organization and demonstrates that the commitment of Coconut Creek Fire Rescue extends far beyond the boundaries of our city. I sincerely appreciate your courage, selflessness, and dedication to protecting lives and assisting those affected by disaster.

Please accept my deepest gratitude and congratulations for your outstanding service and exemplary representation of Coconut Creek Fire Rescue.

Respectfully,

Michael Rodriguez
Fire Chief
Coconut Creek Fire Rescue